Contract Termination

Both parties have the option or terminate the contract acceptable to both parties based on the Philippine Government Procurement Reform Act and its Implementing Rules and Regulations, GPPB Guidelines or its issuances, and other Philippine laws as applicable.

Pursuant to Annex I of the 2016 Revised Implementing Rules and Regulations, as of 15 July 2022, of the Republic Act No. 9184, the CIC reserves the right to terminate the Procurement of License for Endpoint Protection Solutions on the following grounds:

a. Termination by Default:

- Pursuant to Section 68 of the 2016 Revised IRR, when outside of force majeure, the SP fails to deliver or perform any or all of the contract deliverables within the period specified in the contract, or within any extension thereof granted by the CIC pursuant to a request made by the SP prior to the delay, and such failure amounts to at least ten percent (10%) of the contract price;
- Pursuant to Section 68 of the 2016 Revised IRR, the SP, as a result of the force majeure, is unable to deliver or perform any or all of the contract deliverables, amounting to at least ten percent (10%) of the contract price, for a period of not less than sixty (60) calendar days after receipt of notice from the CIC stating that the circumstances of force majeure is deemed to have ceased; or
- The SP fails to perform any other obligation under the contract.

b. Termination for Convenience, in whole or in part. If the CIC has determined the existence of conditions that make the contract implementation economically, financially or technically impractical and/or unnecessary, such as, but not limited to, fortuitous event/s or changes in law and national government policies.

c. Termination for Insolvency. If the SP is declared bankrupt or insolvent as determined with finality by a court of competent jurisdiction.

d. Termination for Unlawful Acts. In case it is determined prima facie that the SP engaged, before or during the implementation of the contract, in unlawful deeds and behaviors relative to contract acquisition and implementation.
